Vol. No. XXV, No. 16

November 28, 1994

NOTE: This is the last issue of The Record for the 1994 Fall Semester.

FROM DEAN MATASAR

It's hard to believe, but once again we have reached that special time of year: when showers become a nuisance, where the sounds of laughter of one's family and friends are distractions, when newspapers accumulate, where world crises pale in comparison. Yes, final examinations are at hand.

It is at times like this that simple aphorisms are usually given, such as, "Relax, you will do better than your worst fears, but probably worse than your highest ambition." There is unfortunately no simple truth. Exams matter a great deal, especially in the short run. They may determine whether you receive financial aid; they may determine who will receive academic honors; they may inhibit or promote finding a job. Thus, I cannot tell you not to worry or be apprehensive.

I can tell you that whatever importance your grade on law school exams has pales in comparison to the importance of exams to your education. The real value of an exam is not that it sorts students, but that it requires students to study--really study--to synthesize, think analytically, and think conceptually. Intensive study, devoted to the single-minded pursuit of understanding a course, is the most valuable educational experience. Whatever grade you receive, the real powers of the exam process is that you will take responsibility to learn.

Good luck. Study well. Enjoy the holiday season, and I'll see you next year.

FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

Academic Calendar

Classes will meet as follows for the remainder of the semester:

Monday, November 28: Monday classes meet.

Tuesday, November 29: Tuesday classes meet.

Wednesday, November 30: Thursday classes meet, not ~~Wednesday~~ classes.

Thursday, December 1: Thursday classes meet again.

Friday, December 2: Friday classes meet.

Saturday, December 3: Saturday Trial Advocacy classes meet.

Sunday, December 4: no classes meet.

Monday, December 5: only Wednesday classes beginning at 4:00 p.m. or later meet.

Tuesday, December 6: only Wednesday classes beginning at 4:00 p.m. or later meet.

Final Exams: December 9 - 22.

Spring semester begins Tuesday, January 17, 1995.

Final Exams

Final exams begin Friday, December 9, 1994. Room assignments for final exams will be posted on the bulletin board and in the main lobby during exam week.

Students should read Section VII of the Student Handbook which sets forth the rules and regulations regarding final exams. Section 7.3 states: "Students are expected to take examinations when scheduled, even though ill or inconvenienced." The notification procedures for missing an exam and taking a make-up exam are in §§ 7.3 and 7.4 of the Handbook. If an emergency occurs which may prevent you from taking a final exam, you or someone should contact the instructor as soon as possible. If you cannot reach the instructor, call Dean Julie Fenton at 906-5271 or me at 906-5130. In addition, please review Article II of the Code of Conduct, on pages 63 and 64 of the Student Handbook, which lists "prohibited conduct."

Faculty Evaluations

By the end of this week, you should have had an opportunity to complete a faculty evaluation questionnaire for each of your instructors. If evaluations were not distributed in a class, please let me know. If you did not complete an evaluation for an instructor, please obtain a form from my office or the Registrar's office and drop it in the "evaluation" mailbox on the second floor.

Intensive Trial Advocacy Mandatory Meeting

As announced in last week's Record, a mandatory meeting for all students enrolled in Intensive Trial Advocacy 1 will be held on Tuesday, November 29, 1994 at 5:15 p.m. in the law school courtroom. You must attend this meeting because it is considered the first session of the class and materials will be distributed. If you absolutely cannot make this meeting, you must email me before the meeting.

Spring, 1995 Class Assignments

I'm sorry to have to mention this, but during the last week in December, I will mail a letter to all students with the reading assignments for the first week of the spring semester. If you want your letter to be mailed to an address other than your "local" address, please email your mailing address to Kimberly (KDENARD). If you don't get my letter by January 6, email or call Kimberly at 906-5130 and we'll mail another one to you.

Jurors Needed for Intensive Trial Advocacy Trials

The Intensive Trial Advocacy 1 program needs student volunteers to serve as jurors for the final trials to be held in Courtroom 1503 at the Daley Center on Saturday, January 14, 1995 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. A reception will follow during which jurors will have an opportunity to talk with the instructors and participants about the trials (and have a bite to eat). This is an excellent opportunity to observe the Trial Advocacy program in action and to help the law school. If you are interested in serving as a juror, please email KDENARD as soon as possible.

Good Luck

I want to wish all students the very best of luck on final exams. A couple of weeks of good, hard studying will help the luck along! Happy Holidays to everyone, have a wonderful New Year and a relaxing winter break.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Program Changes and Add/Drop Days

You should have received your program notice for the Spring, 1995 semester in the mail over the weekend. If you did not, stop by the Registrar's office to obtain a copy of your course schedule and to verify your mailing address. A list of the courses or sections that were closed at the end of registration is available outside the third floor cafeteria and in the Registrar's office.

You may make changes to your schedule on Add/Drop day. To add an open course and/or drop a course from your schedule, complete an Add/Drop form which is available in the Registrar's office. Use the form to indicate various alternatives. For example, if you need an Advanced Research section, list several open sections in the order of your preference. You will be registered for the first section on your list that is open. Make sure to put your priority code number in the upper corner of the form.

Submit Your Add/Drop Form to the Registrar According to the Following Schedule:

Evening Division students: Tuesday, November 29 by 6:00 p.m.

Day Division students:

D1 - D4: Wednesday, November 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

E1 - E4: Thursday, December 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

F1 - F4: Friday, December 2 from 8:30 a.m. to noon

Add/Drop forms will be processed randomly within the priority groups.

Advanced Research and Legal Drafting

An additional section of Legal Drafting, specializing in Environmental Law, will be taught by Prof. Monica Roth and Kate Delahunt on Mondays from 4 to 5:50 p.m. The course number is Law 422-007-02. This section may be added on Add/Drop day.

All 2L Day Division students and 3L Evening Division students must be registered for either Advanced Research or Legal Drafting, unless exempt from Advanced Research. If you are not currently enrolled in a section, you should add one on Add/Drop day.

Exams on Computers

If you want to take an exam on computer, you must sign up in the Registrar's office by 6:00 p.m., Wednesday, November 30. If a lottery is necessary to select eligible students, the drawing will be held on Thursday, December 1. A list of students who cannot be accommodated will be posted on the second floor bulletin board on December 1.

Students taking an exam on computer should be sure to obtain a copy of "Rules and Regulations Governing Exams on Computers" from the Registrar's office. Make sure you are familiar with all of the procedures before your first computer exam. Computers may break down and other problems can occur during a computer exam and it is essential for students taking exams on computers to fully understand the procedures.

June, 1995 Graduates

Please submit a Graduation Requirement Analysis Form to the Registrar's office with the $60 graduation fee by the end of first week of the Spring semester and read §1.8 of the Handbook.

FROM ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS JULIE FENTON

As finals loom, please don't be afraid to ask for help. Need tips on how to write exams? Want to conquer that anxiety monster? Want to plan and manage your exam prep time in the most effective manner? Or do you have a question that you don't know who to ask? Call, email, or stop by. Law school can be a very isolating experience. Please contact us so we can help break that isolation barrier. Sherry Waldrep and I will be glad to talk to you and help you get the support, advice, or information you need.

We hope you all achieve your personal best on exams! Best wishes for a healthy and happy holiday season and an enjoyable semester break.

Julie Fenton
Assistant Dean of Students

SWALDREP, 906-5272

FROM MIKE MARICK, '82, LAW SCHOOL ASSOC. PRESIDENT

I trust all of you had a nice Thanksgiving break with lots of turkey, football and good times! It is difficult to believe that finals are already upon us. At this point, you should feel a sense of accomplishment having dealt with the many challenges and experiences presented to you this Semester. Keep striving for the best and your efforts will pay off! Best of luck with your finals and Happy Holidays.

SPECIAL NOTICES

From the Bookstore, Graduation Rings

On Tuesday, November 29th, Jim Magnuson from Jostens will have a table set up on the first floor with a display of rings. He will have many different styles of rings and will be able to answer any and all questions at that time. He will be in the lobby from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

From Prof. Vivien Gross, Director of SOS (Serving Our Society)

Our office will remain open during the week of November 28 - December 2 to help serve you. We will then close until Monday, January 9. If you wish to speak to us during this time, please call 6-5089 and leave a message. Keep in mind that Holiday break is a great time to volunteer. Here are some new opportunities:

Illinois Department of Human Rights

Provides opportunities in the following special interest areas: civil rights, administrative law, labor law, housing, women's issues, alternative dispute resolution, AIDS, and disability issues. Research and writing.

Midwest Immigrant Rights Center

Provides valuable experience in immigration law. Students required to speak Spanish, Servo Croatian, or Haitian-Creole.

Illinois Department of Health and Human Services

Office of Hearings and Appeals-Social Security Administration. Research and case preparation.

Our office hours next week are as follows:

Monday	1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Tuesday	4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
Wednesday	2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Thursday	2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Good luck on finals and enjoy the break. We'll see you next year!

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Fred Abbott was quoted in the November 6 KANSAS CITY STAR in an article about the GATT debate.

This fall, Professor Lori Andrews has been involved in a variety of activities focusing on reproductive and genetic technologies. Once a month, she flies to New York to participate in a faculty seminar at Columbia University on the ethical, legal, and social issues raised by genetic technologies. In October, she presented a paper, Social Issues in Genetic Testing, at an international meeting of geneticists sponsored by the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Human Genome Organization in Washington, D.C. That same month she presented a paper, Preliminary Results from the Cystic Fibrosis Pilot Studies, at the American Society of Human Genetics annual meeting in Montreal, and published Legal Issues in the Care of Pregnant Cancer Patients at 46 THE CANCER BULLETIN 395. In November, she taught a two-day postgraduate course for psychologists, psychiatrists, physicians, and lawyers associated with reproductive technology clinics. At that course, which was held at the American Fertility Society Annual Meeting in San Antonio, she presented two papers, Policy and Procreation, and Who is the Patient in Egg Donation?. Also in November, she attended a meeting in Santa Fe, NM, of an ABA Committee that she co-chairs, the Family Law Section Committee on Genetic and Reproductive Technologies. In December, the federal commission on which she serves, the Working Group on the Ethical, Legal, and Social Implications of the Human Genome Project, will meet in Bethesda, Maryland to consider proposed federal legislation on genetic privacy and to recommend policies for the operation of DNA banks.

Professor Phil Hablutzel appeared on CNN in an interview about the Kemper deal on Monday, November 21, and Tuesday, November 22.

Professor Linda Hirshman was on Inside Politics Sunday evening November 20.

Professor Gordon Hylton recently presented his paper, The African-American Lawyer, the Next Generation to the Faculty Forum at Howard Law School. He was also interviewed by THE RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER of North Carolina in regard to the continuing use of racially restrictive covenants four decades after Shelley v. Kramer. He is also writing the entries on nineteenth century United States Supreme Court justices Joseph Bradley and Stanley Mathews for the forthcoming AMERICAN NATIONAL BIOGRAPHY, a 20-volume work which will be published by Oxford University Press as a replacement for the DICTIONARY OF AMERICAN BIOGRAPHY.

Professor Marty Malin was quoted in the November 22 CHICAGO TRIBUNE in a story about the Round Lake teachers strike and the School District's decision to hire temporary replacements.

CAREER SERVICES NEWS

1Ls and 2Ls: Chicago Bar Foundation Funding a PILI Internship

The Chicago Bar Foundation (CBF) recently announced that it will fund a PILI internship position for a first or second year Chicago-Kent student to work in a public interest organization for the summer of 1995. CBF is sponsoring one intern from each of the Chicago law schools.

The Chicago-Kent CBF Intern will be selected from the pool of applicants by a committee composed of faculty and professional staff members using three criteria: (1) high level of scholarship, (2) demonstrated commitment to public interest, and (3) financial need. Chicago-Kent will forward the name of its student to the CBF at the end of December.

The selected student will then submit a PILI application to PILI by January 10th indicating her/his preferred agencies chosen from PILI's list of 33 participating agencies. The agencies will conduct interviews, giving special consideration to the CBF Intern, and make hiring decisions by March 1.

Interested first or second year students must submit an application to the Career Services Office by 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 8th. The application consists of an application form available from Barbara

Clemmer in the Career Services Office, a letter stating why the student is interested in the internship (note: see the selection criteria listed above), a current resume, and a transcript (2Ls) or list of Legal Writing assignment grades (1Ls).

Mark Your Calendars: Midwest Public Interest Law Initiative Career Conference

Watch this space early next semester for information about the Midwest Public Interest Law Initiative Career Conference (MPILCC) scheduled for Saturday, February 25, 1995 at Northwestern Law School. Last year, students from 36 law schools in 11 states participated in the program and approximately twenty-six employers interviewed students for jobs during the conference. Don't miss this terrific opportunity to interview and/or network with public interest employers!

Offers and Acceptances from Fall On-Campus Interviews

Just a reminder: if you had the good fortune to receive an offer through the fall on-campus interviewing, please let us know your decision. Email LABRAMS, SCHU or KIIDA with your results if you have not already done so. Thanks for your cooperation!

1L Information:

Attention 1Ls from Wisconsin! An Invitation . . .

On the evening of Wednesday, December 28, 1994, Foley & Lardner's Milwaukee office will host its annual holiday reception for first year law students who are Wisconsin residents. Students interested in attending the reception (in Milwaukee) must sign up in the Career Services Office by 7:00 p.m. on December 8th. The firm will mail invitations to those students who signed up to attend.

A Note from Lisa Abrams, Assistant Dean for Career Services

Thank you for taking time to attend our series of 1L orientation programs. We know that when you're facing your first round of finals it's hard to think about what you plan to do next summer (or how, as an evening student, you can find time to develop legal experience), much less what you plan to do with the rest of your life.

In our zeal to answer your questions and address your concerns, we cover a great deal of ground in our 1L programs. Don't be overwhelmed! The best investment you can make in your career at this point is to spend ample time preparing for exams. There's plenty of time to develop a plan for next summer and a career plan for the rest of your life.

We're looking forward to working with you as partners in your job search. We know, based on our experience, that good things are in store for students who invest time and effort in career planning. Though we can't promise you a job, we can make this promise: we are here for you as you plan your career, and we'll be here every step of the way!

Job Fair

LL.M. in Taxation Job Fair

The annual LL.M. in Taxation Job Fair will be held at the St. James Suites Hotel in Washington, D.C. on February 11, 1995.

Currently, we have only a tentative timeline to give you for job fair deadlines. We anticipate that information about employer participants will be available in the Career Services Office after Friday, December 9, 1994. Students must submit the registration materials, preference sheet and a resume for each employer in which you are interested to the Career Services Office no later than Monday, December 19, 1994. Students will be notified of invitations to interview by the end of January.

If you are interested in participating in the job fair, please sign up at the reception desk of the Career Services Office. If you sign up with the Career Services Office, we will be sure to email you with student registration information as it becomes available.

Foreign Trained Students Invited to the International Students Interview Program

The annual International Student Interview Program has been announced for Friday, January 20, 1995 at New York University School of Law in New York, N.Y. The interview program is open to students in the LL.M. in Comparative and International Law program and J.D. students who have a legal degree from another country besides the U.S.

Students may sign up for the program at the Reception desk in the Career Services Office. When you sign up, you will receive a packet with instructions and a preference sheet. Students must submit registration materials, a preference sheet and a student resume for each preferred employer to the Career Services Office no later than 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 30, 1994. Please see Kristine Iida in the Career Services Office for more information.

Handouts Concerning Special Opportunities:

Southern Poverty Law Center Fellowship & Summer Internships

The Southern Poverty Law Center, a nonprofit organization located in Montgomery, Alabama, seeks applicants for its one-year post-graduation fellowship and summer internships. The fellow and interns assist two staff attorneys in litigating constitutional and civil rights issues on behalf of indigent people and minority groups.

Information on application procedures can be found on Handout #52. The deadline for internship applications is December 30th, 1994. The deadline for fellowship applications is January 30th, 1995.

3Ls, 4Ls, LL.Ms: Indian Law Fellowship

Each year, the University of South Dakota School of Law hires an individual with a demonstrated commitment to Indian Law to take advantage of the resources of the law school and university to further develop that specialty. The Fellow spends six months at the law school studying, researching, and conducting a one-credit-hour seminar in Indian Law. At the end of the period, the Fellow submits a written work product to the faculty.

Candidates must receive a J.D. by August of 1995 and demonstrate an interest in and commitment to the practice of Indian Law. Find more details on Handout #53 and apply by April 1, 1995.

2Ls: National Summer Rural Legal Corps Fellowships

The National Association for Public Interest Law (NAPIL) received a grant enabling the organization to establish fellowships for 50 law students in rural legal services offices nationwide. Fellows will spend a week working pro bono and then will earn $300 per week for up to 10 weeks.

See the notebook labelled "National Summer Rural Legal Corps" for descriptions of the participating rural legal services offices. Pick up the application in Handout #54 and submit it to NAPIL by Friday, December 2, 1994.

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS

The Center hopes you all had a happy and healthy Thanksgiving break and have arrived well rested for the home stretch drive. Two final notices which are of great importance: ONE - Remember to backup your files regularly. TWO - If you want some advice and guidelines on taking exams on computers, come to one of the three sessions the Center is holding this week.

New For 1995: New Printers Coming Next Semester for the Computer Labs

When students return for the Spring, 1995 Semester, there will be some welcome changes in the Computer Labs. Specifically, students will be pleased to see that the noisy, slow, unreliable dot matrix and ancient HP Laserjet IIs will be replaced with four high-speed, high-quality, quiet Hewlett-Packard Laserjet 3si and 4si printers. For the Spring Semester, every student at Chicago-Kent will receive 300 FREE pages of laser printing. Students will still be expected to route their LEXIS and WESTLAW case download printing to the Document Center for $.05 per page.

The Center has conducted an extensive survey of student printing patterns and this limit was chosen to accommodate almost all student printing needs. If you print more than 300 pages during the course of the semester, you will be charged $.05 per page for every page over 300. There is more good news. This new system will be handled WITHOUT vendacards and WITHOUT requiring students to put down a printing deposit. Here are the details of how the system works:

- ▶ At the beginning of every semester, students will be given a number of free pages of laser printing for that semester. The Spring 1995 Semester number is 300.
- ▶ Every time a student prints to the laser printers in the computer labs, the number of pages printed will be counted by special network software.
- ▶ A new Kentnet menu option will allow students to view their current printing balance at any time.
- ▶ If a student prints more than the number of allotted pages for the semester, the system will continue to count pages, but these pages will be charged to the student's print account at the rate of $.05 per page. Student who exceed their semester allotment of free pages will still be able to print. Printing will not be turned off.
- ▶ Before the second week of the following semester, any students who have outstanding charges on their print accounts will be expected to pay up before they receive their next allotment of free pages. At the end of the second week of the new semester, students who have not paid up their print accounts will not be allowed to print in the computer labs. Payments are made to the Bursar on the second floor.
- ▶ Students are not allowed to carry forward a balance from one semester to another. Every students starts with a clean slate at the beginning of a new semester.
- ▶ Students cannot lend pages to other students and are discouraged from doing so.
- ▶ Students who print out materials for faculty or staff must print out a detailed listing of their account (from a Kentnet menu option) and have the faculty or staff member sign-off on the pages printed. Students can present this to the Bursar and be credited for these pages. Remember, this is only necessary if the student's total printing for the semester exceeds the number of free pages for that semester.
- ▶ Free pages cannot be applied towards LEXIS, WESTLAW or LOIS (image system) printouts. This printing must be directed to the Document Center and paid at their prevailing rates.
- ▶ Graduating students will not receive their diploma until their print accounts are paid in full.

The software being used to manage this system is in use at many Colleges and Universities and the Center has conducted extensive tests to insure that the system works. However, students should register any disputes (in writing) with Julie Fenton, Assistant Dean of Students. Center staff will be checking the printers daily for paper and toner. Report any problems with printers or printing to Dominick Grillo (DGRILLO), Computer Lab Supervisor.

The great majority of students will not use up their semester allotment of free pages. This new printing arrangement also increases the fairness of the system since students who are frugal printers are not being forced to pay for high-volume printing students. There may be some bumps and glitches in the system as we make the transition. In the event of difficulties, we ask for your patience. As always, we welcome your comments and suggestions. Please direct these to Rosemary Shiels (RHSIELS), Director, Center for Law and Computers.

Final Exams On Computers

If you are not familiar with any of the programs available for exams (WordPerfect 5.1+ for DOS, WordPerfect 6.0b for DOS, WordPerfect 5.2 for Windows, Microsoft Word 5.0 for DOS, Microsoft Word 6.0 for DOS, and Framework) we recommend that you become familiar with them before you walk into the final. To assist you, the Center will hold classes on saving files, using headers and page numbers in WordPerfect (5.1+, 6.0b, 5.2), and making backups. Classes will be held in Lab 700 and we ask you to please email Jim Judge (JJUDGE) if you are planning to attend so we can get a count.

Tuesday, November 29	12:00 p.m. - 12:45 p.m.
Wednesday, November 30	3:15 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Wednesday, November 30	8:15 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Although the Registrar determines the procedures for exam taking on computers, the Center offers these classes to help you prepare as much as possible for the exams.

FROM SBA PRESIDENT TOM STOVALL

It is hard to believe that this semester is over! Since this is the last Record for 1994, I want to thank all those who have contributed time and effort toward a successful and productive fall semester. Thanks to all the SBA representatives for doing a great job in making sure that their constituent's needs were heard by the administration, to the administration for doing an exceptional job in efficiently addressing these needs and finally, to the student organizations for coordinating and presenting outstanding speaking and social events this semester. Thank you all for a semester of support and I look forward to our continued success in the spring semester of 1995! To those of you who are graduating, best of luck and have a great and wonderful career! To the rest of us: Good luck on exams!

Last Happy Hour: Thursday, December 22. The exact time and location will be broadcast and posted throughout the school at a later date.

HAVE A JOYOUS HOLIDAY SEASON!

ORGANIZATIONS

Chicago-Kent Law Review

The new issue of the CHICAGO-KENT LAW REVIEW, Symposium on Ecology and the Law, is in. Please pick up your free copy on the concourse level.

Commentator

The Commentator apologizes but due to a staff emergency, the next issue has been postponed until January. In the next issue of The Commentator, look forward to: a commentary-spoof entitled Three Hell, a law student's week-long diary of everything that kept him away from his books -- including unscheduled surgery. Please submit any materials you have in WordPerfect 5.1 attachments. Feel free to submit artwork and free classifieds (including used book notices) until the second week in January. Please submit by email to KPICHER.

Computer Law Association

CLASS will hold a Computer Clinic sometime in January to help set up the computer and modem you get for Christmas! We will configure software and hardware, install and test modems, install LEXIS and WestLaw software and any other software you bring to us in the original package.

Environmental Law Society

Last Tip for the Semester: Recycle those pesky foam packing peanuts and chunks of molded foam packaging that are in the boxes which hold all the gifts that your friends and relatives will lavish you with this holiday season! For information and to find the nearest drop-off spot call the Plastic Loosefill Council for the pesky peanuts at (800) 828-2214. For the chunks of molded foam call the Association of Foam Packaging Recyclers at (800) 944-8448.

If you are interested in joining the committee to help plan and carry out activities for Earth Day 1995 please email Ann (ABLOSS). If you have any problems with t-shirt orders please contact Amy (AKNAPP) or Shannon (SSIMMON2).

Federalist Society

The members of the Federalist Society wish everyone a peaceful and safe holiday season. We will have a meeting in January to discuss the semester's speaker events. Email MDJURIS1 with any ideas and information.

Illinois State Bar Association

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS! Pick up your handy Chicago-Kent Pocket Directories on the Concourse level. The directories list all the student organizations and their leaders, as well as vital Chicago-Kent phone numbers and semester class and vacation schedules. All organization leaders -- ISBA can do printing for your special events. Over the past year, ISBA has printed ticket for Barrister's Bash, as well as posters, handbills and other notices for special events. As long as one of your officers is an ISBA member and you give us two weeks notice, we can do your printing. Contact one of your ISBA Law Student Representatives for the 1994-95 school year are Melissa Durkin, Rupal Dalal, Susan Walter (SWALTER2) and Mala Byanna.

BECOME AN ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION MEMBER: Law student membership in the ISBA offers many practical benefits, including the opportunity to meet and learn from active ISBA members -- Networking! Currently, the ISBA has 32,000 members. Annual law student membership is only $10 a year or $25 for four years. Join now and receive free subscriptions to ISBA journals and newsletters plus free admission to ISBA Law Ed Series programs. Pick up ISBA applications on the Concourse Level.

GOOD LUCK ON FINALS AND HAVE A GREAT BREAK!

Kent's Association of Trial Lawyers of America (KATLA)

On November 30, Kathy O'Laughin and Pamela Peters will be coming to Chicago-Kent to discuss their experiences as trial attorneys as associates at the firm of Keck, Mahin & Cate. They will tell how they prepared themselves as law students to become successful litigators. After giving us tips on what we can do to become successful trial attorneys, they will answer any questions from the audience. Everyone is invited to attend (whether a KATLA member or not). The program is scheduled to begin at 3:30 p.m. on November 30 in Room C40. Free food and beverages will be provided.

Kent Justice Foundation

KJF and the kids from St. Malachy would like to thank everyone who bought Holiday Cards. Watch the Broadcast News to find out when you can pick up your cards at the Spaketeria.

Good Luck to everyone in finals and have a GGGGGGGGreat Break!!!!

Phi Alpha Delta

For all 1Ls -- the final exam prep session will be held this Saturday, December 3rd, at 10:00 a.m. at Chicago-Kent (room TBA). 2Ls and 3Ls will be on hand to discuss strategy and exam taking tips. 2Ls and 3Ls who have had the same professors and who have taken the same professor's final whom you now face, will be on hand to answer all your questions. Last year this session helped over one hundred 1Ls prepare for exam week. This prep session will only last a few hours, so take advantage of it!

Thanks to all for a great semester and look for a great Happy Hour early next semester as well as a possible ice skating party, volleyball bash, many more speaker events, a final initiation, and much more. Have a relaxing break and PAD will see you next year.

Sports and Entertainment Law

We do have two great speakers already lined up for next semester. Information will be forthcoming. I hope to see you all there. If you have any SELS news, info, suggestions or questions, please email AFREEDMA. Good luck to everyone on exams and we will see you in 1995!

Women In Law

Support Group for Evening Students. First Years: Stressing out about finals? Don't know where to start? Want to vent about how overworked you are? Second, Third & Fourth Years: Now that you know everything there is to know about studying, come help first years get through their finals. Join us on the second floor of the cafeteria at 5:15 on Wednesday, November 30. We'll talk about the best strategies for studying and how not to drive yourself crazy. We'll also try to set up individual mentors for first years. JOIN US THERE!!
